

RETINA CONNECT

Weekly Live Webinar

While we cannot meet in person during this covid era, we hope to continue the exchange of retina expertise, knowledge, and solutions through didactics and cases.

We will also consult our lecturer and panelists on best practices of their clinic and operating room management during this crisis as well as their re-opening plans.

The sessions offer Level 1 CME, please enter your full name upon log in.

Tuesday April 28, 2020 4pm EDT

"Engaging diabetic retinal detachments and preventing their development "

Maria Berrocal, MD

Assistant Professor, Dept of Ophthalmology, University of Puerto Rico

Panelists:

David Chow, University of Toronto, Toronto, ON

Gareth Lema, Mount Sinai, New York, NY

Gary Abrams, Kresge Eye Institute, Detroit, MI

Audina Berrocal, Bascom Palmer Institute, Miami, FL

Michael Kapusta, McGill University, Montreal, QC

Tuesday May 5, 2020 4pm EDT

"Artificial Intelligence in Ophthalmology - Reinventing the eye exam"

Pearse Keane, MD FRCOphth

Associate Professor, University College London. Consultant Ophthalmologist, Moorfields Eye Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.

Panelists:

Renaud Duval, Universite de Montreal

Rishi Singh, Cleveland Clinic

Tuesday May 12, 2020 4pm EDT

"Using OCT to improve the outcomes of macular surgery"

Stanley Chang, MD

Professor and Former Chair, Dept of Ophthalmology, Columbia University Medical Center

Tuesday May 19, 2020 4pm EDT

"The journey to the Airlie House Symposium on the Treatment of Diabetic Retinopathy"

Stuart Fine, MD

Professor, University of Colorado. Emeritus Professor, Johns Hopkins and University of Pennsylvania.

Panelists:

Frederick Ferris III, Former Director of the National Eye Institute

Tuesday June 2, 2020

"History of Vitrectomy"

Gary Abrams, MD

Professor and Former Chair, Dept of Ophthalmology, Wayne State University, Kresge Eye Institute